The Member of the Wedding It's the story of 12-year old tomboy Frankie Addams. She unrealistically dreams of going away with her brother and his new bride on their honeymoon. Her security and best friend is the family's housekeeper, Berenice Sadie Brown, and her six year old cousin, John Henry West. It's an unlikely trio. It's known as one of the most beautiful plays to take place on the Broadway stage starring Julie Harris as Frankie and Ethel Waters as Bernice.

The play runs in cooperation with the Cumberland County Library's Big Read program which this year features the works of Carson McCullers.

Audition Requirements : Auditions consist of a prepared monologue not more than 2 minutes in length. Scripts will be available from the Stage Manager at the audition for cold readings.
