

Bright Star

August - September 2026

Inspired by a true story, Bright Star is a sweeping musical featuring a Tony®-nominated score by Steve Martin and Edie Brickell. Set in the American South across the 1920s and 1940s, it follows literary editor Alice Murphy as a chance encounter with a young soldier stirs memories of a child she once lost. As past and present intertwine, Alice embarks on a journey of love, loss, and redemption that has the power to transform both their lives.

Sponsorship: $3,000

The Best Christmas Pageant Ever

35th Anniversary | December 2026

The Herdmans are the worst kids in town—liars, thieves, and total troublemakers. So when they take over the annual Christmas pageant, disaster seems inevitable. But as they encounter the story for the first time, their unexpected honesty and curiosity begin to reshape it in surprising ways. What starts as chaos becomes something heartfelt and new, proving that even the most unlikely participants can rediscover the true meaning of Christmas.

Sponsorship: $2,500

For More Info:

Celeste Matos, Development Associate
development@cfrt.org
(910) 323-4234 ext. 231

Frozen: The Musical January - February 2027

In the kingdom of Arendelle, sisters Anna and Elsa grow up isolated as Elsa struggles to control her hidden powers. When those powers are revealed, Elsa flees, plunging the land into an endless winter. Determined to bring her sister home, Anna sets out on an epic journey alongside Kristoff, his reindeer Sven, and the lovable snowman Olaf. Filled with magic, humor, and a stunning score, Frozen is a powerful story of sisterhood, acceptance, and true love!

Sponsorship: $6,000

One Man, Two Guvnors April 2027

Down-on-his-luck Francis Henshall finds himself working for two bosses at once—without either knowing. As he scrambles to keep them apart, mistaken identities, outrageous coincidences, and nonstop chaos unfold. Set in 1960s Brighton, this fast-paced comedy delivers high-energy physical humor and sharp wit - if you loved The Play That Goes Wrong, you'll love One Man, Two Guvnors! Starring CFRT's Education Director Marc de la Concha.

Sponsorship: $4,000

Big Fish May 2027

Big Fish is a fantastical musical about Edward Bloom, a traveling salesman known for his larger-than-life stories. His son Will is determined to uncover the truth behind the legend. As Will pieces together his father's past, he discovers something deeper about family, identity, and the power of storytelling. Heartwarming and imaginative, Big Fish celebrates the extraordinary within the ordinary! Directed by CFRT's Artistic Director Mary Kate Burke with choreography by EMMY winner Tyce Diorio.

Sponsorship: $5,000

SPECIAL OPPORTUNITIES

Sensory Friendly Performance: Frozen: The Musical

Sponsor our sensory friendly production of Disney's Frozen: The Musical! Your name will be on all material advertising our sensory friendly performance including E-Blasts, social media posts, programs, and flyers.

Sponsorship: $2,000

Popcorn Sponsor

What's a trip to the theatre without POPCORN?! Want to advertise with CFRT in a unique and high-visibility way? Become our Popcorn Sponsor! Your personalized sticker will be added to every popcorn box served during our 26-27 Season!

Sponsorship: $6,500

Military Sponsor

Is your business especially committed to supporting and caring for our troops? Join CFRT as our Military Sponsor and get special benefits tied to Military Appreciation Nights!

Sponsorship: $3,000

A+ Sponsor

Give back to teachers and educators in our community by becoming CFRT's A+ Sponsor and receive special benefits tied to Teacher Appreciation Nights!

Sponsorship: $3,000

For More Info:

Celeste Matos, Development Associate
development@cfrt.org
(910) 323-4234 ext. 231